WHOLE NO. 861.

TERRE-HAUTE, INDIANA, SEPTEMBER 22, 1858.

How it Looks.

It is singular with what unrelenting hostil ity the Lecompton Democracy pursue the an ti-Lecomptonites. The moment any of them express an independent thought, that momen some supporter of the administration bristles with anger and abuses with fury. The National Democrat, started as the exponent of the anti-Lecompton sentiment of this State-the bold and able advocate of Popular Sovereignty and of Mr. Douglas-the offspring of the 23d of February Convention, and the ardent opposere! Lecomptonism, is now traduced by the editor of the T. H. Journal, because it sympathizes with John G. Davis in his heroic battle against the administration. Capt. John Osborn, of Clay county, who was the presiding officer of the District Convention that nominated Mr. Secrest, because he recently made a speech in Bowling Green, in which he denounced Lecomptonism, and declared himself in favor of Popular Sovereignty and John G. Davis, is now receiving stab af ter stab from the "Clay County Democrat," the Lecompton organ of that county. Because he united with many other Democrats and adopted the following resolution :

taken by the Hon John G. Davis, on the Lecompton fraud, and that we hereby pledge him our undivided support"

he is traduced in the most violent manneris called a "low and abandoned blockguard" -his motives are questioned, and he is really accused of seiling himself for "thirty pieces
